

Consignment Form and Guidelines

This page is for printmakers that want to send their actual prints to our physical location. This is the recommended way. You will get paid faster because we ship your print and don't have to wait for confirmation from the client before you are issued a check.

Also, you have more chances for your prints to sell because they will be on display in the print racks in our gallery and not just on the internet..

Please read all of this.

The way it works

1) You mail the prints to the above address. They need to be in my hands for a MINIMUM of three months. If you have good digital images of your print(s) send them on a CD with your actual prints (jpg/tiff only min. of 500px wide)

If not, I will do all the photography or scans for you, FREE.

2) Once I receive your Print(s), I will mail you a signed inventory form stated what I have of yours.

3) I go to work. Listing the prints online and setting up the webpages.

At this point your prints will be in the racks here at my physical gallery. (PROTECT YOUR ARTWORK) Sleeves, shrinkwrapped and matted. Whatever you wish. Just remember, presentation is everything! NO FRAMES or GLASS. Ideally... matted and in a clear plastic sleeve.

4) If your print sells, once it is paid for, I will mail you a check for the price stated in your consignment agreement. Usually within 7 business days.

5) If at ANY TIME you want your prints returned, please state it IN WRITING and provide the shipping return costs and they shall be sent back. No questions asked. They are yours to do with what you would like.

Fees

There are NONE. This will be an arrangement based on trust. I am one person running this part of the show here.

I will add roughly 20-25% onto your asking price. This will cover any merchant service fees and provide us with a small stipend.

We recommend that if you sell in multiple venues, Price your work so that it is the same across the board. Don't undermine any one potential venue or sale. MEANING: If you list your work on your own website for $100, Please do not set a selling price with us for $50. This will damage your own potential private sales. We want to keep things as uniform as possible. Please feel free to contact us if you need more of an explanation.

You do not have to pay any fees accept the cost of shipping your prints to our location.

Liability Terms

Designers Art Market will take the upmost care with your prints though we are not responsible for theft or damage to consigned items.

The consigning of your print(s) constitutes an agreement with all conditions. Designers Art Market assumes the right to photograph any work for promotional purposes only.
